It is our desire to offer you our assistance in developing a suitable program to correct these apparent violations. Toward this end, we request your attendance at a Compliance Conference to be held:

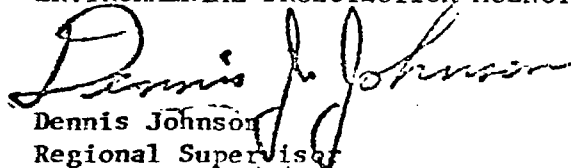

November 21, 1975, at 1:30 P.M. in the Northern Regional Office, 33 South Stolp Avenue, Aurora, Illinois.

You should bring such personnel to the Conference as will enable complete discussion of the following issues: 1) Validity of the aforesaid apparent violations; 2) short-term program to reduce or eliminate violations; and, 3) long-term program to achieve compliance, if necessary.

It is further requested that you confirm your attendance at such conference, in writing, to the undersigned, within ten (10) days from the date of this letter. Should we not receive such confirmation, we will assume you do not desire this Agency's assistance in the development of a compliance program.

Yours truly,

ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
